Looking FORWARD TO LOOKING Back

Imagine: You've had a great time on a great trip. A wise and good pal has captured your memories on film and dropped the roll off at the photo lab. Now you're ready to pick up the pictures and you're filled with the anticipation of reliving the magic of that trip, those friends, that great time.

That feeling is recreated now as you're about to open your yearbook for the first time, as you look forward to looking back on that adventure called Billerica High.

From the time that you were very young there have always been things that you have looked forward to. These things probably make up many of your early memories. We've looked forward to birthdays and Christmas, and to finally getting the training wheels off of our two-wheeler bicycles. Some of us looked forward to our first day of school (while others looked back at our parents with tears in our eyes). Now, we are finishing up high school, going into adulthood. After graduation some look forward to college while others are eager to go right into the working world. But all of us will have times in common, when we are just looking forward to looking back. Let this book be that first glimpse back.

JUNIOR PROM

The theme for the Class of 1995's junior prom was "Heaven" And as we looked around the ballroom of the Westford Regency, it really seemed to fit. Suddenly we saw the people that we see every day at school in a different light. The room seemed enchanted in the half-darkness, taken over by elegant tuxedos and sequined dresses. We laughed and talked, ate and danced into the night. We took pictures to capture these moments forever in our scrapbooks and in our memories. It was a night to remember and relive again and again.

HEAVEN

SPIRIT WEEK

Looking back to...

One cool day in the middle of November, we glanced down the hall and something seemed strange. The students were all wearing shorts, tee shirts, and sunglasses. They carried with them sunscreen, beach balls, and coolers and had towels draped around their necks. It was that time of year again: Spirit Week. And it was in full force. This year the events included beach day, scarf or tie day, cartoon day, and wacky dress up day. The senior class outdid last year's 101 Dalmations stunt by dressing as Smurfs on cartoon day. Besides having fun, the student body collected a total of 3,324 canned goods that went to the Billerica food pantry. Although the junior class captured the Spirit Week trophy this year, the seniors had a great time. And looking back in a few years, that's what we'll remember.

Right: Chad Yavarow, Tim Darcey, Ed Allain, Tim Sullivan, and Matt Rosetti show faces that could intimidate any opponent.

PEP RALLY

After sitting through three somewhat organized pep rallies, some members of the Class of 1995 decided that it was time to take a step "forward" and make their final one a little more "interesting." In spite of some unpopular antics, most seniors legally livened up the rally and made it a memorable one for athletes and audience alike. Mrs. Ouelette and Coach Flynn punched up everyone's spirits for the big game and the athlete leaders told us about the seasons that were worth cheering for!

Right: Franklin Shearer speaks of Indians winning season and hopes that their luck will continue through the Thanksgiving Day game.

THANKSGIVING GAME

The weather was cold, well below freezing, when loyal students and parents alike trooped to Chelmsford at ten in the morning to witness the annual contest between Billerica and Chelmsford in the Thanksgiving Day game. At first it looked hopeful. Billerica even scored in the first quarter, and the fans were getting excited. But as the day warmed up a little, so did Chelmsford's team. By the second half Chelmsford was well ahead and many of the previously loyal fans had gone home, unable to bear the extreme cold and disappointment any longer. The score ended up 61-20, in favor of Chelmsford. We look forward to Coach Flynn making good on that victory promise next year.

Top: Tim Darcey runs the ball.

Middle: The body language says it all.

SENIORS

Here we are, the faces of 1995. Immortalized in this book are the classmates that we have all been looking at for four years, maybe even longer. These are the people that we've laughed with and cried with, loved and hated, hung out with and ignored throughout high school. Now we are all moving forward and our class of 1995 will be scattered far and wide. But here in these pages are the people with whom you've shared an experience. In the future you'll look forward to dusting off the old yearbook and showing it to your spouse or child. You'll show them the way you were, what you did, and whom you did it with. When you look back on these faces, the faces of your classmates, hopefully you will see a group of people that you are proud to have been a part of for that brief four years.

Top: Kelly Dominices, Tara Pasquale, Katie Corcoran, and Erin Doyle gather for breakfast in the cafe.

FALL SPORTS

There are certain details in nature which bring the spirit of fall sports to life.

The smell of the wet dew on the clean-cut grass, the mix of reds and yellows among the trees, and the feeling of the cold autumn air as winter approaches. Such autumnal signs evoke the instinct of competition, the desire to experience the thrill of victory, and avoid the agony of defeat. Every fall offers us a new beginning and a fresh start. The football field is freshly painted, the pools are chlorinated, the floor boards are waxed, and the fairways are cut. And Billerica athletes test their mettle in fine fall air.

VOLLEYBALL

The girls varsity volleyball team had an exciting season with great athletic performances. Led by Tri-captains Charity Peterson, Maura Powderly, and Veronica Mullholland. Their spirit and dedication brought the girls through a season full of anxieties during competition. The two most exciting games of the season were against Andover and Lawrence. The Indians lost to Andover in the first match, but then came back to defeat them in the second and third matches. The team was on their way, volleying both the ball and academics throughout the season. Later in the season, the Chelmsford girls team gave Billerica a run for their money, and the close scores proved that the Lady Indians had great potential as a team. Although the team didn't make it to the state match, the girls had fun during the entire season—and that's all that mattered.

SWIMMING

The '94 season was the most successful one the swim team has had in recent years. It focused on both team and individual performance with a final record of five wins, four records broken, and many personal goals achieved.

The season started with high hopes that the team's depth and skill would lead to victories. Tri-captains Leanne Hayes, Cathy Legg, and Michelle Ouellette led the more than 50 swimmers, and kept the team spirit high.

At the first meet the team defeated Methuen and saw a school record broken by Legg in the 100 Breaststroke. More records were to follow: Hayes broke the Diving mark against Chelmsford, and the team of Hayes, Legg, Ouellette and Leslie Pacheco set the 200 Freestyle Relay mark. At the Northern Sectional meet a season-long goal of the same relay team was realized: they placed ninth in the 400 Freestyle Relay, breaking the school record and qualifying for States in an exciting down-to-the-finish race.

Ouellette achieved a four-year goal of competing in two events at Sectionals: the 100 Butterfly and 100 Backstroke. Hayes went on to place fifth in Diving at States.

Returning sprint Freestyler Niki Horgan showed she could finish hard, earning the Most Improved Player award. Keri Johnson kept the team smiling and used her determination to improve in the 100 Breaststroke.

Laura Simolaris brought experience and enthusiasm to the team and lent depth in sprint Freestyle. New swimmers Jasmine Morgan and Sue Hayes pulled for the team at every meet.

The swim team would like to thank coaches Anthony Fiore, Rick Danahy, Mrs. MacNeill, and manager Nisha Barochia for making 1994 a great season.

GIRLS SOCCER

The 1994 girls soccer team had one of their best seasons this year, ending with an 18-2-1 overall record. The Lady Indians made it to Division I North State finals for the first time ever. The regular season record was 16-1-1, placing them in the state tournament. There, Billerica defeated top-seeded teams Bishop Fenwick and Acton-Boxboro to advance to the finals.

The team played its best game of the season in the state finals against nationally ranked Winchester. The high intensity of the game rallied the crowd and added extreme excitement. Although the game ended in a 2-1 loss, the feeling of Billerica pride was stronger than ever.

The team was led by captains Andrea Salerno and Diane Dempsey. Strongly contributing seniors included Robin Morey, Sandy Brown, Joanna Tzannos, Julie Mitza, Jen Rouine, Maureen Cronin, Christine Irwin, and Jen Sullivan. These athletes proved that: "She who has the will to win can not be beaten."

BOYS SOCCER

The Billerica boys soccer team had a positive outlook on their upcoming season. They had a number of players returning and promising newcomers joining the squad. They were a team to be dealt with in the Merrimack Valley Conference. The season began well, but soon injuries took their toll upon the team and this is where the difficulties arose. The team, however, stuck together, worked hard, and relied upon its particular strengths, including quickness and overall control both on and off the ball. When the season came to its conclusion, the team had posted a 7-4-7 record, which was good enough for entrance to the state tournament. Although ranked low, the Indians advanced two rounds to the semi-finals where they suffered a tough loss. The team had limited goals throughout the year, but made good use of them along with a strong defense that produced 11 shutouts, including 2 in the state tournament. The fans were proud of their team for a great showing and effort given by the players.

The goal of this year's golf team was to continue the quest for a second straight MVC small school championship. In order for the team to accomplish this feat they had to fill the spots for the three senior starters who graduated last year. Coach Mike Cowdrey did just that by including junior Jason Murphy and sophomore Ryan Anderson into the starting lineup. The other starting golfers were seniors Mike Cotta, Steve Moody, Jim Powers, Ryan Torpey, Josh Reynolds, and Paul Penti. The team ended up with a 9-4-1 record that was good enough for their second straight MVC small school championship.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

In the beginning they were just 21 girls who showed up one morning to do this crazy thing called cross-country. Some of them knew what to expect, but others had no idea. Through the leadership of Coach Elliot and captains Jessica Geisser, Jamie Donovan, and Stephanie Walsh, these girls finished the season with a winning record of 6-3: the best record they have had in years. They also placed tenth in the state meet.

The varsity team was made up of many key runners, including Jamie Donovan, Jessica Geisser, Melissa Thomas, Dina Passalacqua, Laurel Putnam, Jen Shaffer, Nicole LaMar, Stephanie Walsh, and Christine Buckley. Other senior runners were Abbey Spring, Diana Fay, and Wendy Shaffer, all of whom added depth and spirit to the team.

The highlight of the season was the girls' victory over rival Chelmsford, a feat which had not been accomplished in over 14 years. There were also many individual goals realized this season. Jamie Donovan and Jessica Geisser were both named MVC All-Conference athletes, while Melissa Thomas, Dina Passalacqua, and Laurel Putnam were named MVC All-Stars. All in all, the season was a satisfying one, both because of the goals that were realized and the friendships that were forged.

Boys CROSS COUNTRY

The team started off as a small group of young men who demonstrated a potential for running. As soon as the school year started, the team mushroomed to twenty-three runners. They began their season with Tewksbury, and suffered an unfortunate loss at the Marshall Middle School. From that loss, opponents expected the Indians to be just another "easy" team in the MVC, considering them non-threatening to their records. Yet, this was far from the truth. With the determined coach Mike Granfield, as well as twenty-three focused runners, the team was back in contention for a championship ranking. Soon, the harriers were unstoppable, defeating such opponents as Lowell, Lawrence, Haverhill, and Dracut. The team's destiny arrived when they stepped onto Chelmsford's territory. The Lions underestimated the Indians conditioning and fortitude, and lost the meet by a single point. This was the team's first victory over Chelmsford in nearly twenty years. Two weeks later, Chelmsford hosted the annual MVC meet. Again, the Indians defeated all eleven teams, and proudly walked off the course with medals and the team trophy. Then, with cold temperatures, and strong winds, the Cross Country team scalped Andover and Methuen in a tri-meet at home. Their streak

continued, pride and spirit at hand, as the Indians romped the undefeated

Departing seniors of the team include: Brendan Finn, Mike Holland, Shaun Deeney, Eric Shaffer, and Brian Tassi. With seniors and underclassmen alike, the team effort brought the Indians to win both the MVC race, as well as the championship title. The banner will hang proudly as a sign of this team's hard work, concentration, and dedication.

FOOTBALL

The 1994 Indian football team was a great blend of senior leadership and underclassman surprises. The squad amazingly placed twelve players on the Merrimack Valley All-Conference team. The seniors named to the team were Dan Dowd, Bob Klane, Greg Iannelli, Chad Yavarow, and Tim Darcey.

The season started with a tough contest against highly touted Central Catholic. Through the inclement weather the two teams battled it out. The Indians prevailed with a great win: 10-7. The Indians then lost two heartbreaking games to Lowell and Haverhill. Yankee Doodle Homecoming against Haverhill was a defensive struggle. Both teams fought in the driving rain, with the game coming down to a 10-0 score in favor of Billerica. After starting 1-2, the Indians ripped off a string of impressive league victories over opponents Methuen, Wilmington, Dracut, and Andover. During this winning streak the offense was explosive and the defense was dominating, posting impressive numbers. The annual Thanksgiving game was a tough blow for the Indians, but the players still finished with an excellent season.

The team finished with a 6-3 league record and an overall record of 6-4. Along the way they created some great Friday nights, proved a lot of critics wrong, and earned respect from the league. Billerica football proved to be a team not to be taken lightly during the '94 season!

CHEERING

Under the direction of Coach Rosie Petrosillo, the 1994 Football Cheerleaders proved to have a successful season. The season was one which had many ups and downs, but the team of 16 talented girls stuck together and never gave up the fight.

When tryouts were over, a team consisting of 7 seniors, 4 juniors, and 5 sophomores was formed. There were 4 returning senior football cheerleaders: Heather Leibovitz, Maureen Burke, Jessica Tebbetts, and Andria Belanger. Switching from Basketball Cheerleading were Tammy Morgan, Patty Petrosillo, and Janine Bonacci, all of whom were a great addition to the team.

Never had there been a team with so much talent. The training started in June as they worked to build strength and confidence. On November 19, with much help from the 6 outstanding gymnasts on the team, they walked out of their competition at Woburn with the second place trophy.

Without the dedication of Coach Petrosillo, the girls would not be the athletes that they proved to be. We will miss the girls we are leaving behind and hope that they will carry on, with pride, the spirit of Billerica High.

MARCHING BAND

The 1994-1995 season was a grueling yet rewarding one for the BMHS Marching Band and Silver Jade Colorguard. It was a hectic season, with attending Indian football games, the Yankee Doodle Parade, the Woburn Halloween Parade, competitions, and endless rehearsals.

The band went undefeated this year with a 7-0 record, placing first at competitions in Trumbull, CT; Dennis-Yarmouth, MA; East Lyme, CT, where they broke 90 with a score of 90.05; Danbury, CT; Norwalk, CT; and Port Chester, NY. They also hosted their own show at the Marshall Middle School field which was a great success.

At Eastern Marching Band Association Finals in New Jersey, the band was up against nine other deserving bands but came out on top with an outstanding score of 95.05. They became the EMBA Division II Champions and the Massachusetts State Champions. They also received special awards of Best Colorguard, Best Music, Best Marching, and Best Drum Major, awarded to Kelly Milward who scored 97 out of a possible 100.

The band was led by senior captains Kelly Milward, field director; Jamie Powers, drum line captain; Danyelle Sellers, and Wendy Sullivan who were colorguard co-captains. Other seniors included Kim Driscoll, Heather Ingalls, and Cheryl January. The soloists also did a great job with Brian Douglas ('96) on Baritone, and Greg DiFraia ('97), Will Jennings ('96), Matt Joyce ('96), and Adrienne Keefe ('97) on trumpet.

Regardless of their small size, the senior class proved to be one of the most hard-working classes ever by being the first class to win 3 EBTA Championships in their 4 years of high school band.

WINTER SPORTS

They say we live in a temperate zone. Ha! Billerica winters tend to be bone-chilling and snowy. Many would prefer to hibernate with MTV or a good book, but Billerica athletes choose to head for a sweaty gym and the chance to jump, run, shoot, and pin their way to victory for the glory of B.M.H.S., and, hey, some fun and a few laughs. So grab a Pepsi and a dog (remember, no eating in the gym!) and relive the winter wonderland of sport in these pages.

WRESTLING

The 1994-1995 wrestling squad was stacked up with 8 seniors. Tri-captains Tim Sullivan, Matt Rossetti, and Jeff DeRosa led the team to an M.V.C. title and sectional championship. Sean Jenkins, who is a four-year starter for the Indians, combined with Matt Hogan for a quick one-two punch at 119 and 125. At the tail end of the lineup Ed Allain and Pat Yarnell made the difference in many close meets. The team's 15-2 record reflected the efforts of not only the seniors but also many underclassmen. For the first time, the team was able to place all 13 wrestlers in the top six in the section, which meant that everyone went to the state meet in Westfield. For the second consecutive year the team placed third in the state tournament.

Mr. Viglione, Mr. Tholander, and Mr. DeRosa were the foundation for the team's success in everything. Congratulations to Mr. Viglione for his coach of the year award. It was a great season for all.

GIRLS TRACK

The girls winter track team had another winning season this year with a record of 5-3. Led by senior quad captains Jamie Donovan, Kim Driscoll, Dina Passalacqua, and Stephanie Walsh, the Lady Indians finished third overall in the M.V.C. league with wins against Lawrence, North Reading, Wilmington, Lowell and Methuen.

The team consisted of many senior standouts. All accomplished personal bests during the season; Jessica Geisser, Kelly Milward, and Dina Passalacqua were Billerica's leading scorers in the mile and two-mile, while the middle distance events of the 1,000 and 600 yards were dominated by Jamie Donovan and Stephanie Walsh.

Newcomer Danyelle Sellars was the lone senior in the sprinting events of the 50-yard dash and 300-yard run, while Kim Driscoll was the team's leading thrower in the shotput event. Jamie Donovan scored consistently for Billerica in the high jump event.

Other standouts included junior Cassandra Thornton who was named Runner of the Year for her undefeated league record in the 50 meter hurdles. She finished second at the All-State Meet and went on to finish seventh at the New England Meet. The 4X200 team consisting of Cassandra Thornton, Nicole LeMar, Lyn-Marie Murphy, and Wendy Boudreau also had an excellent season, placing fourth at the State Coaches Meet.

Boys Track

The 1994-95 winter season proved to be a very productive one for the Billerica Boys track team. As defending MVC champions, they worked together and achieved great accomplishments both as a team and individually. The team never quit under pressure during tough competition and they finished the season with an overall record of 3-5. With head coach Ken Coutoumas and assistant coach Peter Flynn, the boys learned to dedicate themselves to the sport with pride, respect, and dignity as representatives of the town of Billerica. Despite running in the snow, sleet, and rain, the boys enjoyed themselves to the fullest and thus made it an enjoyable season.

Senior captains Brendan Finn and Dana King showed strong support and leadership in the distance events, and captains Mike Suchecki and Joel Breen set precedents for the sprinters and throwing athletes. From the bus ride home and the locker room rallies, to the classroom, the team proved to be enthusiastic as well as bright—receiving the gold scholastic award.

During the season there were many great individual accomplishments as well. The relay squad with Mike Suchecki, Matt Desmarais, Phil Levesque, and Brendan Finn finished with two first place finishes at the state relay competition, and senior Brendan Finn became the 1995 New England Champion for the 1000m race at the Harvard University track. Great runners such as Dana King, Shaun Deeney, Adam Manoli and Pete Gonsalves also contributed to the team's scores.

Departing seniors include: Joel Breen, Shaun Deeney, Frank Degan, Matt Desmarais, Brendan Finn, Mike Suchecki, Brian Tassi, Dana King, Chris Roncari and Erik Shaffer. This year entailed one of the most memorable experiences as far as senior involvement goes. Their hard work and dedication made them the real champions, and the paint on the walls of that dusty old basement will always remain.

HOCKEY

The 1994-95 hockey team had another winning season, sharing the Merrimack Valley title with archrival Chelmsford. This year the team was led by captains Derek Cappella, GT Keenan, and Colby Weston, as well as other seniors. The team relied heavily on freshman goaltender Scott Yavarow who turned out to be the backbone of the team. Despite losing several seniors this year, the team will return next year with exceptional talent up front as well as a solid defense. The team thanks all who supported them this year and especially their coaches Jim Wronski, Ed McColgan, and James Minor.

GYMNASTICS

The 1994-1995 girls gymnastics team was led by senior captain Maureen Cronin to a third place finish in the MVC with a 5-3 record. The team spent more than one month of dedication to practice before the first meet. That meet began a season marked with five new school records against Lowell, Wilmington, Methuen, Chelmsford, and North Andover.

One of the most impressive wins of the year came against former powerhouse and returning championship team Dracut. Standout gymnasts included juniors Robin Porter and Amy Plimpton, sophomores Jenni Ambrose, Chrissy Sullivan, and Lori Chenevert, as well as freshmen Andrea Cucchiara, Adrienne Dirosaria, and Jaclyn Renoni. Renoni vaulted her way into the state individual meet to wrap up this impressive season for the team.

BASKETBALL CHEERING

The 1994-95 basketball cheerleaders provided Billerica fans with enthusiasm and school spirit throughout the basketball season. Although they had a new coach and a young team, these dedicated cheerleaders proved that they had the skills to impress and thrill the crowd.

This year's graduating seniors were Lisa Blades and Arcelyn Miel. These two upperclassmen gave strength that carried their team from a group of inexperienced girls to a team of powerful athletes.

Junior co-captains Maria Picardi and Lauren Sarno were the only two returning members to this team. These girls provided experience and sportsmanship that set a positive attitude for the rest of their team.

Contributing hard work and dedication were sophomores Erin Campbell, Stephanie Crowley, Sandy Fletcher, Amy Johnson, Andrea Marion, and Dana Putnam. A special thanks goes out to coach Lori-Anne Buterbaugh who put time and effort into the season. Good luck to next year's team!

GIRLS BASKETBALL

It was a rough season this year for the girls basketball team. Playing with two seniors, six juniors, and five sophomores, they were considered a young team. The team was led by senior captain Julie Mitza at guard and junior captain Tina Trider at forward. Heather O'Donnell, a senior guard, was a contributing factor also.

With only four returning players this inexperienced team lost their first three games. With only a few days to pull themselves together, they entered and won the Greater Lowell Invitational tournament. Mitza was named most valuable player and made the All-Tournament team along with Kelly Barker and Jen McBride.

After defeating Lowell and Tewksbury, the girls went on to face a strong Bishop Fenwick team, who had beaten them earlier in the season by 30 points. The Lady Indians played an exciting game and won 53-38.

They went on to lose more than they won and with a 6 and 8 record they needed to win four out of the five remaining games in order to qualify for post-season play. It came down to the last game against Lawrence, which was probably the most exciting game ever in girls basketball history. The score was back and forth the whole game and in the last three minutes of play they cut Lawrence's lead from eight to three and with only nine seconds left Billerica had the ball under their basket. It was kicked out to Kelly Barker in three-point land and she took the shot as the buzzer sounded... swish! The Indians raised their game to a higher level and came out on top beating the Lancers 65-63 in overtime.

They entered the state tournament and beat Woburn 40-37 in first round play. This was the first time in BMHS history that the girls team went beyond the first round. In the second game they were to play against the two-year defending state championships: the Haverhill Hillies. Billerica lost and their season was over.

Named to the Merrimack Valley All-Stars were Julie Mitza and Tina Trider, and Kelly Barker made All Conference.

Sticking together and working hard in preparation for each game kept the girls' hopes alive and their spirits high. This team should be proud of themselves, not only for believing in and supporting their teammates, but for believing in themselves.

Boys BASKETBALL

This year's boys basketball team was extremely optimistic. Despite a final 10-10 record, the Indians managed to finish second in their league. The highlight of the season was qualifying for the state tournament.

The team was led by captains Tom Pelton and Phil Kennedy. Pelton was an All-Conference selection for the second year in a row and the Indians' go-to player, while Kennedy was called upon for his rebounding and inside play. Other seniors on the team were All-Star Gary Bricher, sharpshooter Mike Holland, and defensive-minded Anthony Giordano. Bricher's primary job was to shut down the opponent's best player, while his driving ability was also exceptional. Holland was Billerica's best free-throw shooter, while he also excelled at three-point shooting down the stretch. Rounding off the seniors was Anthony Giordano, who in the fall season suffered a fractured leg playing soccer. However, with many hours spent getting back into competitive physical condition, Giordano met and surpassed his personal goal to become a contributing member of the team.

Other contributing players were juniors Robert Marino, Kevin McDermott, and Bill Rochefort; and sophomores Nick Fitzgerald, Scott Mara, Jay Norton, and Mike Rouine.

Coach McDermott was proud of Billerica's performance this season and pleased to have a great group of student-athletes.

WINTER SPORTS

Spring is here and the days get longer. Alas, so do the practices. But in the spring, nature wears Billerica's colors proudly and the greening of the world charges spring athletes with a need to hit harder, run faster, pass more quickly, and serve more accurately. Billerica Indians will kick up their heels, slide into home plate, break old records, and hit the sweet spot every time. For this is spring, and everything seems possible.

VOLLEYBALL

The boys' volleyball team finished their season with a 9-11 record, just missing the State Tournament. The team was led by senior Mattaratza and All-Stars Mike Hillis (junior) and Nick Fitzgerald (sophomore). It's quite an improvement from the season before when the team finished with a 1-17 record.

A successful season came down to the match at the end of the season. The team had to play a tough, Needham opponent. The match lasted over two hours with the Billerica team playing one of its best matches. Unfortunately, the team from Needham edged Billerica with a 2-1 victory.

The Billerica Boys' Volleyball team is improving with each season and optimism will direct next year's team. Best of luck from the retiring seniors.

GIRLS TRACK

The Billerica girls spring track team had another successful season with a record of three wins and three losses. Led by the tri-captains of Andrea Salerno, Jennifer Rouine, and Jamie Donovan, the girls had outstanding victories over some of their competitors, including a seventy-five point win over Wilmington.

Returning seniors included Kim Driscoll, Jessica Geisser, Dina Passalacqua, Kelly Milward, Stephanie Walsh, Wendy Shaffer, and Diane Dempsey, who with all of their effort, time, concentration, and skill, helped to overcome some challenges of the season.

New Coaches Lori Ann Buterbaugh and Sarah Doherty contributed to the wisdom of Coach Daniel Muphy, who along with the combined heart of the whole team led to a memorable last season for the departing seniors.

BOYS TRACK

Despite the Indians' record of 1-6, pride and dedication kept the team's spirit of Billerica High alive. With head coach Ken Catoumas, and assistants Peter Flynn and Bob Loranger, the hard-working team showed promise in all events. Distance captains Shaun Deeney and Brendan Finn guided the younger runners on the road, and sprinting captains Matt Desmarais and Mike Suchecki influenced teammates on the track.

The most outstanding highlights of the season were from some of the individual accomplishments. Seniors Brendan Finn and Mike Suchecki, along with runners Adam Manoli and Phil Levesque took first place in the 4 x 400 relay at the State Class Meet, which allowed them to continue on to the New Englands, and finally the National Championships in South Carolina. It was success and teamwork in these big meets which influenced some of the younger athletes to perform as hard as the senior class competitors. Although going from Merrimack Valley Champs to having only one win, it was the pride, tradition, teamwork, dedication, and most importantly it was the fun that these young men had while racing in such a competitive sport.

GIRLS TENNIS

For the girls tennis team, the season of 1995 will be considered a rebuilding year. After losing five seniors last year in most of the key positions, this year's team was young and inexperienced. However, they fought hard in every match, greatly improved their tennis skills, and had lots of fun both on the courts and off.

At first singles was Tina Carrabba, junior captain and half of last year's star first- doubles team. Although she had next to no singles experience, Tina managed to come out on top of many of her matches this year, due to her determination never to give up. Senior captain Abbey Spring took the second singles position, a spot she had coveted for years, and although she lost more than she won her spirits never fell. Playing third singles was senior exchange student Lucie Voriskova. It was a nice surprise for the team to find out that she was an excellent tennis player and she fit in nicely at third singles, ending up with the best personal record on the team. First doubles was junior Suzanne Foisy and senior Alexa Pozniak and second doubles were juniors Amy Warren and Sarah Kusnierz, although these four were often shuffled around into alternate pairings. Whatever the teams, they always worked well together and brought in some important wins for the team.

Also contributing to the team were the many other underclassmen who gained experience and also cheered their varsity teammates at every match.

It wasn't a year of championships, but this year's tennis team found that whether you win or lose, being a part of a team is always fun and always a learning experience.

Boys Tennis

This year was a very exciting one for the boys tennis team. They started out the season well, but fell short in the end trying to make the state finals. They had great success from their three singles players. Co-captains Kevin Matheson and Jeff Bass were two competitive players throughout the season.

First year player and senior Brendan Lewis came out strong and was a steady participant throughout the season, posting a team best (12-4) record.

The doubles teams started out shaky but with a few changes they came around. Doubles players included Brian Matheson, Chris Norris, Todd Saggese, David Nardone, Brian Ly, and Rajiv Motwane. In the majority of matches, the doubles teams picked up the slack to help win for Billerica. Added support was given by the sophomore members of the team.

In summary, the team doubled its wins from the previous year and came out only one game short of making the state finals. Good luck at reaching this goal next year.

SOFTBALL

The Billerica High girls varsity softball team had a great 1995 season. Their overall record was 10 wins and 10 losses. The team was young but they managed to make it to the state tournament.

The team was lead by tri- captains Julie Mitza, Robin Morey, and Heather O'Donnell. Mitza showed her defensive talent as the team shortstop which got her a spot on the All- Conference team. She was also named M.V.P. of the All- Star game. Morey, a sensational player, sparked the team's enthusiasm out in right field with her outstanding defensive ability and batting percentage. O'Donnell's flexibility made her an awesome first baseman. Her defensive game was unstoppable as well as her offensive hits. Senior Laurie Zawatsky played an important role on the team as well. In tight situations, Zawatsky came through with clutch hits.

The team pulled together overall in the final games to beat the number three seeded team in the state: Haverhill. After 8 innings they ended up with a score of 7 to 3. With their heads held high, the softball team ended their season.

GIRLS LACROSSE

The girls lacrosse team finished their first varsity season with high expectations for the years to come. The team was lead by captains Maureen Cronin and Andria Belanger. Despite the 0-16 record, the Indians proved to be stiff competition against Lincoln Sudbury, Sandwich, Brookline, and Winchester.

The defense developed fastest this season, changing from the man-to-man to the drop zone style. Hard work from Amy Miller, Renee Grasso, Colleen Lynch, and Karen Spencer made this change possible. Senior captain Andria Belanger was consistant in the cage all season, senior Andrea Button provided strong defense, and seniors Sue Butler, Maura Powderly, and captain Maureen Cronin hustled to provide the team with offense. Both Belanger and Battcock were chosen as independent league All- Stars.

BASEBALL

The 1995 Billerica baseball team finished strong overall, with a 9-11 record, which earned them a second place in the MVC Small School Division. They won a spot in the post season tournament, only to lose a tough game to Newton North 9 to 4. Season highlights included a shutout of Beverly 12-0 in the season opener, another shutout of Dracut, and still another of Wilmington. Other well-played games included a 11-1 win over Chelmsford.

Bob Nestor and Tom Pelton played well for the Indians all season. Many seniors will be missed next season, including Glen Magnan, Tim Darcey, Steve Moody, Mike Fell, Scott Stevens, Tom Pelton, Mike Cotta, and G.T. Keenan.

ORGANIZATIONS

Beyond the perimeters of our classrooms, there's plenty of activity brewing at B.M.H.S. Nearly any day after school the building is humming with the energies of similar-minded people coming together.

Some gather to learn about foreign cultures or the plight of people who can't speak out in their foreign lands. Some come together to get the news out and about. Some chronicle the events of a class in a yearbook. Some launch science projects, some community projects. Some solve for x and y and some gather to ask why things can't be done a better way. Some join clubs to make sense of a messy world by making their school a safer, saner place to be.

This year two new outlets for energy appeared, the Community Service Club and the ever-surprising and surreptitious Billerica Beating (no photo available, but you knew that).

Sing, argue, climb mountains, splice tape, write poetry, whatever. The class of 1995 knows there's life after school.

"A Christmas Carol"

The B.M.H.S. Theater Company's winter play "A Christmas Carol" brought new faces and old to the stage for three wonderful nights. Senior Adam Leavitt played excellently as the cranky old Ebenezer Scrooge, and Senior Joel Breen played Jacob Marley equally as well.

Work started early in the fall when director Jeff Gage taught forty students how to speak with an English accent. Mr. Gage held rehearsals five nights per week with different scenes rehearsing on different nights, and he had a crew every Saturday morning building and painting sets. People also worked hard on stage crew, costumes, props, ticket sales, lights, and sound.

DOUBLE TAKE

F A C U L T Y

Teachers. Hmmm. Here they are taking up several pages in our yearbook. Why? Oh, there's Ms. Chamberlain, who stood over me while I filled out my college applications and wouldn't let me leave her office until I did. And there's Mr. Stavely whose hellos got me through the worst year of my life. And there's Sgt. Bradley who kept me in school by getting me a job. And Ms. Sullivan, who scooped me up off the floor when I fell, and Ms. Adie, who coached me through algebra, and Mr. Vig, who showed me that tricky wrestling move, and Mr. Colangelo, who set me straight about a few things, and Ms. Petrone, who made me eat paella, and Ms. Langelier, who made me organized, and Ms. Connors, who put on my graduation cap, and... and... and... O.K. I guess they're worth a few pages. And thanks.

The future is yours. It will be filled with boundless opportunities and the independence of adult life. But, with the future comes the uncertainties. Will society meet the challenges ahead? How will you measure yourself to these challenges?

The positives will outweigh the problems. Keep the winning spirit and the attitudes of success. I know you will be a credit to yourselves, your families, and to the Town of Billerica.

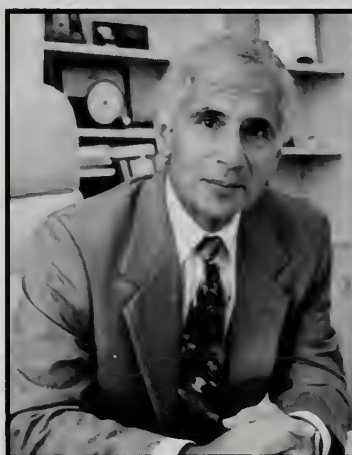

I join with the Billerica School Committee in congratulating each and every one of the Class of 1995. May your future be filled with happiness and achievement.

Sincerely,

Dear Graduates,

Each of you, in your own way, have helped to make Billerica High School a more complete community. You have shared your talents and your strengths and for this we are very grateful.

In the years ahead, I hope that you will be able to look back upon these high school years as a special time in your lives — as a time when you had much fun and excitement while growing as a person of intellect, courage and conviction.

I join with all of your teachers in offering our congratulations to you. Please continue to keep our school community in your thoughts.

Best wishes,

GERMAN ADVENTURE

Mrs. Petrone did another EF tour this year bringing with her ten students and her husband. The ten students were Cheryl January, Merdith Moore, Karen Albergo, Erica Vozella, Erin Campbell, Sandra Gentile, Dave Nardone, Shawn Smith, Sabrina Peta, Jen Rolinson, Jonathan Pozniak, and Denise Blaisdell.

We all landed in Frankfurt, Germany on April 14th after a long flight, and we immediately boarded a bus headed for Heidelberg. In Heidelberg, we took a tour of the old city, we shopped and we visited the Hard Rock Cafe.

The next morning we took a bus to Switzerland. It was an all day ride. In the morning, we rode through the Schwarzwald, the Black Forest, and we stopped there for a cuckoo clock demonstration and to eat lunch. Our next stop along the ride was at the Rheinfall on the Swiss-German border. The falls were seventy feet high and very beautiful.

In Switzerland the next day we took a walking tour of Lucerne. That afternoon we went to the top of Mount Pilatus. The mountain is 7,000 feet high, and we rode up the steep sides in a cable car. When we finally got to the top, it was snowing so hard that it was a white-out, but snow or not, we walked the rest of the way to the peak. That night we went to Swiss Folklore Night at the Stadkeller, and we saw yodeling, flag tossing, alpenhorn playing, a bottle piano, a zither, the broom dance, and saw playing.

Early the morning on the next day, we woke up to another long drive. We drove out of Switzerland to Liechtenstein where we stayed for only an hour. Liechtenstein was tiny but beautiful. Our next stop along the road was in Innsbruck, Austria, the site of two Olympics. There we climbed to the top of a huge tower and saw the town and the surrounding mountains. The mountains were huge and snow covered. That night we arrived in Munich, Germany the site of another two Olympics.

In Munich the next morning we had a bus tour of the city, and then we went to see the Glockenspiel, a huge cuckoo clock in the center of town. That afternoon we went to Dachau, World War II's first concentration camp. We watched a movie, toured the museum and toured the camp site. After dinner that night, we went to the Hacker Keller, a haubbrahaus, where we danced to German music and watched a show.

The next day we drove to Salzburg, Austria where we took a walking tour of the beautiful city, and then we went to the salt mines. That night we had a show and tell for all of our souvenirs.

We spent our last day in the walled-in city of Rothenburg where we pretty much just shopped. The city was pretty and we walked along the wall to get a better view.

The next day we drove to Frankfurt and flew home.

BILLERICA MOCK TRIAL TEAM

With great effort and a lot of time, the BMHS Mock Trial Team set out to improve last year's record of 2-1 and succeeded. Surpassing their goal, the group of promising attorneys finished with a record of 7-1, capturing the District Title. By accomplishing this, the team scored better than over one hundred other teams and was ranked eighth in the state.

The case presented to the Mock Trial Team was a juvenile transfer hearing. They were required to practice both prosecution and defense. When asked about the key to their success, junior Will Jennings responded, "We really came together." An added bonus for the team was their new attorney coach, Mark O'Connor of Boston, who collaborated with advisor, Mr. Frank Giroux. Mr. O'Connor brought his years of experience to the team. "Without him, we couldn't have done it," said Lisa Blades, who spoke of the excellent advice he gave them.

The Mock Trial Team loses five seniors, this year including co-captain Lisa Blades, Jeff Sievert, Diane Dempsey, Heather Ingalls, and Connie Hemenway. The members who will continue their success next year are co-captain Kristina Morey, Robin Mabe, Bob DeCoste, Andy Jennings, Will Jennings, Chris Marshall, Liz Hogan, Carrie Anne DeDeo, Tina Trider, Dave Barron, Melissa Locke, Mike Farrell, Ben Clark, Kristine Curtis, and Wendy Ings.

SENIOR EVENTS

One minute you're standing by the bus stop with your Disney cartoon lunch box and the next you're standing in line at the registry. One moment you're swirling on the stage in Ms. Gould's toddler tap class and the next you're twirling at the senior prom looking sophisticated beyond anyone's (especially your date's!) imagination. One second there you are on the risers singing a kind of karaoke "Jingle Bells" and the next you're starring in the annual musical. One day it's T-ball at the field behind the Vining and the next you're on the same pitcher's mound that saw Tommy Glavine's swivel and pitch. Only now, looking back, do we notice the absurdity, the surreal rush of real time.

We were freshman five minutes ago, and now we're GRADUATING! Prom, sign-out, class day, awards, graduation. Suddenly we're on that long winding trail across the Marshall fields. And the band is playing for us, and the audience is rising for us, and for a second we look back and think what great memories we've been making all the time.

SCHOOL PHILOSOPHY COMES ALIVE!

High School Community Shows Support

When a fellow classmate is in trouble, the class of 1995 knows how to pull together. Last winter Dave Bruce and his family lost many of their valuable possessions when their house caught on fire. Many seniors and underclassmen joined together to ease the pain of their loss in a stunning display of school and community action.

In an effort to raise money while having a good time, a dance for Dave Bruce was held in the cafeteria. Many students arrived for this event to show emotional and financial support for Dave and his family. There were gifts, food, laughter, and a lot of dancing. A great time was had by all, especially Dave who seemed buoyed by the evening's events.

The class of 1995 proved that they were there for each other and that they know how to throw one great party!

B.M.H.S. Presents "Anything Goes"

"Anything Goes" takes place on a ship to England in the 1930's. The passengers include lounge singer and former evangelist Reno Sweeney (Melissa Morris), poor but clever Wall Street broker Billy Crocker (Joel Breen), a fumbling gangster named Moonface Martin, (Chris Marshall), and his girlfriend Bonnie (Stacey Thompson), an aspiring-though unsuccessful-Angel.

This group meets up with Evelyn Oakleigh (Adam Leavitt) a stuffy English businessman, his fiancée Hope Harcourt (Karen Morrison), and her meddling mother (Sarah Frederick).

The passengers become involved in a comedy of errors; which include mistaken identity, unexpected revelations, and lots of shipboard romance.

A large group of volunteers worked to construct an intricate two-level ship, art deco scenery, and tremendous period costumes.

Remarkable performances were turned in by all cast members. Other seniors lending their talents to the show included Karen Albergo, Andria Belanger, Kristen Blanchet, Andrea Button, Cindy Grigg, Andrew MacKenzie, Mike Medeiros, Taryn Munson, Bethany Slack, Erica Sullivan, and Chrissy Reynolds.

We've Got The Look!

The rush to ask for dates began late this year—in early October. It seems that people were busy finding prom dresses instead of costumes on Halloween. The ladies made their hair appointments, and the guys called everywhere to get the cheapest tuxedo last minute. After a very, very long wait the time came for the big Grand Ball. There was a fresh smell of corsages in the air, and fancy limousines cruised through the town. The boys lacrosse team had plenty of time to get ready—a whole ten minutes! Aside from the rush of picking everyone up and taking the “Kodak” moments, everyone knew the prom was going to be a time to remember

The limousines casually pulled up to the Danvers Port Yacht Club. We stepped onto the red carpet like royalty. Everyone looked fabulous. There were fancy red dresses, shiny black dresses with sequins, there were even fluffy bumble-bee type dresses. We showed up in style. There was a spectacular view of the ocean, and the steady breeze on the balcony was a relief from the hot dance floor. The meal was excellent, and there were plenty of drinks to go around. There was lots of room to rock the night away, and the class acted responsibly and maturely throughout the evening. Everyone seemed to get along just fine, and just as the prom song said, we all knew we'd feel “Wonderful Tonight.”

As the 364 kids reluctantly rolled out of bed to go to the "mandatory" rehearsals at the crack of dawn, they also geared for a great class day. The weather was perfect. The sun was out, the birds were singing, and the cars were honking in the traffic on the way there. After a long trek through the Groveland boonies, we had our own little Disney World theme park all to ourselves. The giant pool felt refreshing after conquering the hill to get up to the place. There was some rough competition on the volleyball court, and the DJ played some good tunes. There were food and drinks for everyone, and the attempt to throw Mr. Flynn in the pool failed because of his absence. While many young ladies chose to bask in the warm sun, others enjoyed volleyball with the "Men," as well as tennis and softball. We couldn't have asked for a better day. It was a time when the class seemed to bond together as a family—there were no lonely wallflowers, and not a nose was lifted among the crowd. The 1995 Class Day was definitely worth the twenty bucks, and the entire class had a ball—with memories to share for a lifetime.

"If you look around, you may see faces that you have never seen before and may never see again. The paths taken by these unfamiliar faces may be different from yours or mine, but regardless of the means, we are all here and are all very much a part of this class... Normally, the individuals of our class serve as representatives of their own social cliques. Today, however, there are no cliques; we are all part of the same class, the class of 1995."

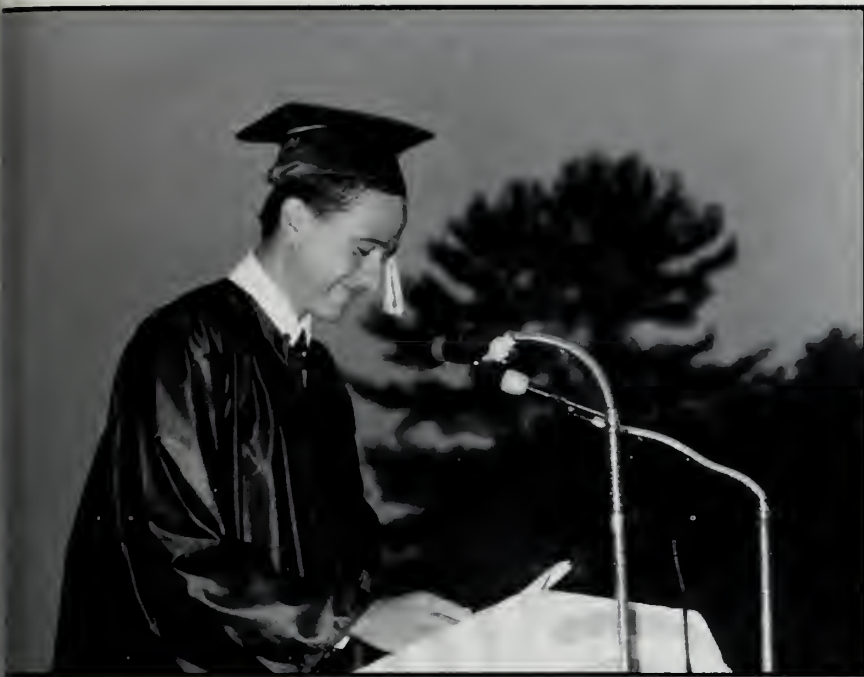

Chris Roncari

"Even as we stop today, the river of time flows on...Soon enough the green and white will be taken off and hung up in our closets next to our memories. Although there will always be something of the nervous freshmen in us all, we now have the pride and confidence to take life into our own hands. Let the experiences of the past strengthen you; keep an eye on tomorrow, and take a little time to celebrate the accomplishments of today."

Cathy Legg

"There always comes a time when a long-traveled journey comes to an end. In September of 1991, the doors of Billerica Memorial High opened to us. For the first time we sat assembled as a group and were recognized as the Class of 1995... The position of senior has its priveleges but it also has an end. The final position for us all is to take these assembled seats, that so many seniors in the past have taken. We will leave as a class standing proudly in green and white. We stand united looking back at the doors that were opened to us. Those doors are closing now; we have as a class made our mark and our memories. Another journey is just beginning..."

Dana King

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration blasts the tobacco company executives at a congressional hearing in March 1994 for denying that nicotine, a drug found in cigarette smoke, is addictive. Tobacco industry workers fear losing their jobs if the FDA succeeds in classifying and restricting cigarettes as a drug.

The Flint River overflows, washing coffins out of a Georgia cemetery after torrential rains from tropical storm Alberto flood Georgia and the Florida-Alabama panhandle. Thirty-two people die, 40,000 are temporarily homeless, and 10,000 square miles are underwater, causing $100 million in crop damage.

Former football star O.J. Simpson is charged with the June 12th stabbing death of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend Ronald Goldman, causing a non-stop media avalanche. The sensational case familiarized watchers with spouse abuse, a televised ride in a white Ford Bronco, "Kato" Kaelin, and DNA testing. Simpson faces the jury in January.

Paula's Beilmann

President Clinton, with Republican leader Bob Dole, signs legislation implementing the U.S. role in an expanded General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), one of the most sweeping trade liberalization pacts in history. The legislation makes the U.S. a member of a new 125-member World Trade Organization. Protectionists worry that GATT may promote world trade but won't sufficiently protect American jobs.

The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building's facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton's bedroom, killing the pilot.

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year's hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate bustiers, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge-turned-beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A new survey shows that over 12 million Americans are vegetarians, choosing the no-meat lifestyle because of concern about animal cruelty, cost-efficiency, eco-friendliness and/or improved health and fitness.

The hottest merchandise around is Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, so hot Cabbage Patch dolls pale in comparison. Parents criticize Fox's super-violent TV show, but their kids crave Dragon Daggers, Megazords, and the 4-foot, $230 battery powered car. "Go, go, Power Rangers!"

LifeStyle

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

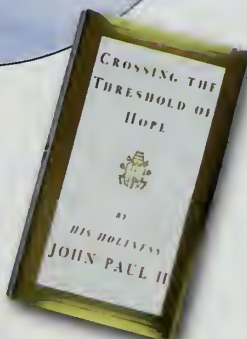

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

Led by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.
